- Dr. Ponthier has contracted with Loyola University of New Orleans, College of Law, to be the exclusive provider of online Continuing Legal Education (CLE) for the University.

Course Description:

Leases are the engines that drive commercial real estate. This course examines the essential elements that should be in a commercial real estate lease in order to protect the interests of both landlords and tenants. Insurance issues, responsibility for payment of capital expenses, escalation clauses, default provision, etc., are covered in detail. This course, in part, provides a comparative look at residential vs. commercial leases for those real estate professionals who, while somewhat familiar with the former, are considering negotiating the latter.

Required Course Material:

This course is entirely self-contained and does not require additional study materials.

REQUIRED HARDWARE and SOFTWARE:

- All course content is available online. To access, a student will need access to the Internet via a cable modem, ISDN, DSL, or T-1 connection. The only software needed is an Internet browser such as Google Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc.
- Any additional software, such as Adobe Reader, needed to access PDF files, is available in the course for immediate and free download.

Completion Expectations:

Prerequisites:

- There are no educational prerequisites for this course; however, students are expected to have high school level reading and mathematics ability.

Upon registering:

- Students must complete the course lessons/modules and the final exam before the course expiration date.
 - Course completion will include completion of all group discussions and case studies, if applicable.
 - Each lesson will have a quiz at the end that must be passed in order to continue to the next lesson.
 - The quiz will consist of multiple-choice format questions requiring a minimum passing score of 70%.
 - Quiz questions will be displayed one at a time.
 - The final exam questions are also presented in multiple-choice format requiring a passing score of 70% or higher.
 - If a passing score is not achieved on any quiz or the final exam, the exam will reset and student will be presented with a different set of randomly selected questions. Student will be allowed to retake until a passing score has been achieved, or until the course expires, whichever occurs first.
 - The username and password will be deactivated after the course expiration date has passed.
