Roy L. Ponthier, Ph.D., Ed.D., CDEI, DREI
Executive Director

Instructor Background:

Roy L. Ponthier, Ph.D., Ed.D., CDEI, DREI

Dr. Ponthier is a licensed Louisiana real estate broker, certified real estate and appraisal instructor, and Director of Executive Training Centers, LLC, an educational services company which offers in-class training in real estate, mortgage finance and appraisal, as well as online training through ProEducate, the company's web-based education division which offers real estate and mortgage finance related courses throughout the United States.

Dr. Ponthier holds a B.S. degree from Southeastern Louisiana College. His graduate training was taken at Tulane University (M.S. and Ph.D.) and the University of New Orleans (M.Ed. and Ed.D.). He holds the Certified Distance Education Instructor (CDEI) certification awarded by the International Distance Education Certification Center (IDECC), as well as the Distinguished Real Estate Instructor (DREI) designation awarded by the Real Estate Educators Association in recognition of exceptional effectiveness in the classroom. Dr. Ponthier has served on the faculty of three Universities, currently teaches classes for The Real Estate Law Society of Loyola University Law School and has chaired college divisions of Computer Science, as well as Education. Since 1988 he has taught real estate related subjects to more than 63,000 students. He is a member of five academic honor societies, as well as MENSA, and author of more than two dozen internationally published scientific papers. He was Director of The Center for Computer Education, Inc., which trained teachers in computer science, and was president of Worldwide Information Network, Inc., a provider of Internet and television marketing in real estate. He has owned two mortgage companies, as well as a business brokerage company and a residential and commercial real estate company.

Since early 2009, Dr. Ponthier has served on a work group for the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System & Registry (NMLS&R) to help develop the functional specifications for mortgage pre-licensing and continuing education programs taught in the U.S. He is a member of the Real Estate Educator's Association, The South Central Educators Group, and the Louisiana Mortgage Bankers Association, for which he is Chair of the education committee. Dr. Ponthier's achievements have been documented in Who's Who (Oxford Edition), American Men and Women of Science, and the International Who's Who in Education.

Dr. Ponthier has contracted with Loyola University of New Orleans, College of Law, to be the exclusive provider of online Continuing Legal Education (CLE) for the University.

Course Description:

- This course encompasses all aspects of the real estate license laws for the state of Mississippi.

Required Course Material:

This course is entirely self-contained and does not require additional study materials.

REQUIRED HARDWARE and SOFTWARE (Internet-Based Courses):

All course materials are available online. To access, a student will need a connection to the Internet. Any Internet speed will be adequate for the text-based version; however, a high speed connection is recommended for the course presented in PowerPoint/Audio format, so the student may appreciate the visual aesthetics of the presentation. Any additional software, such as Adobe Reader (needed to access the .pdf files), is available in the course for immediate download.

Completion Expectations:

Prerequisites:

- There are no educational prerequisites for this course; however, students are expected to have high school level reading and mathematics ability.

Upon registering:

- Students must complete the course lessons/modules and the final exam before the course expiration date.
 - Each lesson/module will have a quiz at the end that must be passed in order to continue to the next lesson/module.
 - The quiz will consist of multiple-choice format questions requiring a minimum passing score of 70%.
 - Quiz questions will be displayed one at a time.
 - The final exam questions are also presented in multiple-choice format requiring a passing score of 70% or higher.
 - The username and password will be deactivated after the course expiration date has passed.
- The course completion certificate will be issued to the student upon passing the final exam at end of the course.

School Policies:

Registration:

- The student is responsible for verification of qualifications for licensing, before registering for a course of study.
- Registrants with any form of criminal history, including misdemeanor or felony convictions, or who are currently on parole, must contact the relevant licensing agency before registering for any pre-licensing or pre-certification course.
- An e-mail account is essential to participate in the online program.
- Any attempt to take the course under an assumed identity, or to accept assistance from others in completing any portion of the course, may result in rejection of a license application, revocation of an existing license, fines, or other penalty provided by law governing the relevant state regulatory agency to whom the student submitted documentation.

Course Participation:

- Students are asked to please be certain that their address book is updated to include acceptance of e-mails from StudentServices@ProEducate.com and Instructor@ProEducate.com
- Instructors may not, in any venue, answer questions of a personal, professional, business, or legal nature, and students should not interpret any information received from instructors, or course content, as being legal or professional advice.
- The instructional staff will respond to questions by e-mail as quickly as possible. In general, questions received by noon on any business day are responded to by 5 pm the following business day. Students who abuse the e-mail opportunity may be dropped from the course, solely at the discretion of the school, without penalty to the school beyond refund of tuition.
