Course Description:

This is a 2 hour overview of Tennessee laws and regulations relating to the residential mortgage industry. This course meets the pre-license education requirement for MLO licensing in Tennessee.

Course Objectives, Goals, and Purpose:

This 2 hour course was designed to meet the requirements as set out in the Tennessee Residential Lending, Brokerage and Servicing Act. It introduces the Department of Financial Institutions of the state of Tennessee and describes the scope of its authority. It also discusses specific Tennessee law related to the licensing and activities of mortgage licensees.

Required Course Material:

This course is entirely self-contained and does not require additional study materials.

REQUIRED HARDWARE and SOFTWARE:

- All course content is available online. To access, a student will need access to the Internet via a cable modem, ISDN, DSL, or T-1 connection. The only software needed is an Internet browser such as Google Chrome, Firefox, Safari, etc.
- Any additional software, such as Adobe Reader, needed to access PDF files, is available in the course for immediate and free download.

Completion Expectations:

Prerequisites:

- There are no educational prerequisites for this course; however, students are expected to have high school level reading and mathematics ability.

Upon registering:

- Students must complete the course lessons/modules and the final exam before the course expiration date.
 - Course completion will include completion of all case studies.
 - Each lesson/module will have a quiz at the end that must be passed in order to continue to the next lesson/module.
 - The quiz will consist of multiple-choice format questions requiring a minimum passing score of 75%.
 - Quiz questions will be displayed one at a time.
 - The final exam questions are also presented in multiple-choice format requiring a passing score of 75% or higher.
 - The username and password will be deactivated after the course expiration date has passed.
- Course completion will be banked on the NMLS website and the course completion certificate will be issued to the student within 7 days of the scheduled end of the course.

School Policies:

Registration:

- The student is responsible for verification of qualifications for licensing, before registering for a course of study.
- Registrants with any form of criminal history, including misdemeanor or felony convictions, or who are currently on parole, must contact the relevant licensing agency before registering for any pre-licensing or pre-certification course.
- An e-mail account is essential to participate in the online program.
- Any attempt to take the course under an assumed identity, or to accept assistance from others in completing any portion of the course, may result in rejection of a license application, revocation of an existing license, fines, or other penalty provided by law governing the relevant state regulatory agency to whom the student submitted documentation.

Course Participation:

- Students are asked to please be certain that their address book is updated to include acceptance of e-mails from StudentServices@ProEducate.com.
