

Section 2 – Part 2

SLIDE 19 – Registration vs. Licensure

It's important to understand the difference between registration and licensing in the State of Florida.

Registration is the act by a real estate business entity of providing names, addresses and license status to the DRE, Division of Real Estate, regarding its management officers, broker and sales agents. FS 475.15

Licensure is the act by a person of qualifying, training and testing to become a real estate sales associate or broker in Florida. Sales associates and broker associates must also be registered with their employing broker.
