

INSTRUCTOR CONTACT INFORMATION

While enrolled in a course, students with questions may e-mail the instructor with questions about course content. All questions to instructors must be by e-mail. Telephone consults are not permitted. Please note that instructors are prohibited from answering questions about student's personal matters, legal issues, professional matters, or anything not specifically related to the course content.

Students should include the course in which enrolled, the relevant lesson, and page number of the content in question. Typically, instructors will respond to questions received by noon on any business day, no later than close of business the next business day.

Instructor's responses are not to be considered legal or professional advice, and students should consult with their own trusted legal or professional counsel before acting on information provided by the instructor.

Questions for instructors should be e-mailed to:

Instructor@ProEducate.com