INFORMATIONAL STATEMENT FOR LOUISIANA RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY DISCLOSURE

In accordance with Act 308 of the 2003 Louisiana Legislature (LSA-R.S. 9:3195-3199), effective July 1, 2004, a seller of residential real property must furnish purchasers with a Property Disclosure Document. A complete copy of these statutes can be found at www.legis.state.la.us. The required Property Disclosure Document may be in the form promulgated by the Louisiana Real Estate Commission ("Commission") or in another form that contains substantially the same information. The Commission form can be found at www.lrec.state.la.us.

WHO IS REQUIRED TO MAKE DISCLOSURE?

A seller's obligation to furnish a Property Disclosure Document applies to any transfer of any interest in residential real property, whether by sale, exchange, bond for deed, lease with option to purchase, etc.

The following transfers are exempt from the requirement to provide a Property Disclosure Document:

1. Court order transfers;
2. Transfers to a mortgagee by a mortgagor or successor in interest who is in default;
3. Transfers by a mortgagee who has acquired the property at a sale conducted pursuant to a decree of foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure;
4. Transfers by a fiduciary in the course of administration of a decedent's estate, guardianship, conservatorship or trust;
5. Transfers of new constructed property;
6. Transfers from one or more co-owners solely to one or more of the remaining owners;
7. Transfers pursuant to a testate or intestate succession;
8. Transfers of property that will be converted into a use other than residential;
9. Transfers of property to a spouse or relative in the bloodline;
10. Transfers between spouses resulting from a judgment of divorce or separate maintenance;
11. Transfers to or from any governmental entity;
12. Transfers from an entity that has acquired title or assignment of a real estate contract to assist the owner in relocation as long as the entity makes available certain disclosure documents;
13. Transfers to an inter vivos trust;
14. Acts that, without changing ownership, confirm, correct, modify or supplement a deed or conveyance already recorded.

EXEMPTION: In accordance with Act 308 of the 2003 Louisiana Legislature, the SELLER of said property is exempt from the requirement to provide a Property Disclosure Document.

Rights of Purchaser and Consequences for Failure to Disclose

If the property disclosure document is delivered after the purchaser makes an offer, the purchaser can terminate any resulting real estate contract or withdraw the offer for up to 72 hours after receipt of the Property Disclosure Document. This termination or withdrawal will always be without penalty to the purchaser and any deposit or earnest money must be promptly returned to the purchaser (despite any agreement to the contrary).

Duties of Real Estate Licensees and Consequences for Failure to Fulfill Such Duties

Louisiana law requires real estate licensees to inform their clients of those clients' duties and rights in connection with the Property Disclosure Document discussed above. Failure to inform could subject the licensee to censure or suspension or revocation of their license, as well as fines. The licensee is not liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission in a Property Disclosure Document, unless the person has actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy, or omission by the seller.

Other Important Provisions of the Law

- A Property Disclosure Document shall not be considered a warranty by the seller.
- A Property Disclosure Document is for disclosure purposes only; it is not intended to be part of any contract between the seller and the purchaser.
- The Property Disclosure Document may not be used as a substitute for any inspections or warranties that the purchasers or seller may obtain.
- Nothing in this law precludes the rights or duties of a purchaser to inspect the physical condition of the property.
